TO FIGHT WELLSVILLE

Business Men Will Test the Bill Poster Law.

MONEY SUBSCRIBED YESTERDAY

The Arrest of Young Benty and the Fine Imposed Served to Rouse Liverpool Merchants—They Do Not Believe It Constitutional, and Will Take the Case to Court.

When the Wellsville council framed an ordinance prohibiting the distribution of bills except through a licensed channel they did not know that they would be called upon to defend the case in court.

As stated exclusively in the NEWS REVIEW last evening, William Benty was arrested by the Wellsville police yesterday afternoon for distributing bills. The boy was locked up, and later given a hearing. His fine was placed at $10, and instructions were sent from the office of Colonel Hill that it would be paid. The boy was released, and a movement started to oppose the law. Frank George, who employed the boy, discussed the matter with a number of other merchants, and the result was a fund for the carrying of the case to a higher court. Local business men express themselves in an earnest manner. They do not believe that Wellsville can shut them out in this way, and propose to give the matter a thorough test. If the law holds, then they want the Liverpool council to pass a similar ordinance, as they say that Wellsville business men at times deluge this city with their advertisements. If the ordinance is no good and will not hold, then they believe their victory is well worth the price. A prominent business man is authority for the statement that enough money had already been collected to make the appeal a certainty, and some merchants have not yet been visited.

The minimum penalty for what the Wellsville council have made an offense is $10 and the costs, while the bill poster is only expected to pay a license of $10 a year. Even Mayor Sinclair looks upon the penalty as beyond what the offense demands, and thinks it should be cut down. In speaking of the ordinance to a NEWS REVIEW reporter he expressed the opinion that it is all right. Indignation among the merchants of this city is plainly seen, and they will fight the ordinance to the last.

LATER—At a late hour this afternoon Mr. George, of Quay & Co., discovered that an act of the last legislature permitted the enactment of such a law, and there was nothing to do but pay the bill.

MISS LEE WRITES.

The Young Missionary Sends a Letter From India.

Miss Ada Lee, the young missionary well known in this city, writes the following to a friend here:

A native Bengali gentleman, with a face full of sunshine, greeted me a few days ago, saying, "I hear you have come to work among my people, and I come to bid you welcome." I asked how he became a Christian, and with tearful eyes and much feeling he told me the following: "I have had two great experiences in my life. I was a student in Doctor Duff's college, studying law. My father and mother were strict Hindus, and very religious. I determined not to listen to the reading of the Bible in school and always closed my ears. One day there was a lively discussion between the students and professor, and the students seemed to be winning on the side of Hinduism. I listened with great interest. The professor made the assertion that our gods were sinful and our sacred books a record of their vile deeds. And being sinful themselves could not save us from our sins. This one thing took hold upon me and undermined my faith in Hinduism. The more I thought of it the more wretched I became, for I felt that I was a sinner and needed salvation. One day a friend loaned me a tract, which was the Beatitudes. I read it again and again, and in reading it my heart was comforted. I asked my friend where I could get a copy of the tract. He told me it was all in the Bible. I at once bought the Bible and began to read day and night. And I must say that before I was enabled to understand that Jesus was God I was greatly helped. After a few months I knew Jesus as my Savior, and was wonderfully converted. I was 20 years of age, but it took me two years to break all ties and come out and be baptized. You do not know how much it costs to leave all friends and give up all you have. I am sure any thinker who is willing to be baptized from among the higher castes is truly converted or he never could do it. Soon after I became a lawyer and for several years in that capacity did, as I thought, the best I could to live right. But there was much in my life that was wrong. It seemed such a little thing just to sign your name, and thus I often sanctioned things which displeased God and soon found he had turned his face away from me. I loved money more than I did God. The Holy Spirit was true to me, and showed me the need of entire consecration of myself to God, and a conviction that he wished me to work for him took possession of me. While in this state I would spend hours rolling on the floor in agony of soul. But God never left me until I had given up law and every thing to him, willing to be used by him as he saw best. Then the baptism of the Holy Spirit came upon me, and filled me. I wish I could tell you what it was like. I then began to preach, and have now a large mission among my own town people with about 30 workers helping me and God is greatly blessing our work. Glory to his name!"

This gentleman is highly esteemed by all who know him, and greatly beloved by his own people. I wish every one who has helped us in our mission could know M. N. Boss, they would pray and work for the Bengali people as never before. Pray that God may give us thousands like him. They are here, "Diamonds in the rough," and we are after them. In spite of the darkness God is able and will do it. Yours for the salvation of the Bengali people.

DUKE AFTER DUCATS.

The Court Said He Earned Them, But Didn't Know Who Should Pay.

Squire Rose had a peculiar case this morning, and when it was ended very few of those connected with it knew where they were "at."

Franklin Duke brought suit against Sanitary Policeman King for $12 he claimed due for digging a vault in West End. The vault was 4 feet square and 12 feet deep, and after Duke had dug it he called on Mr. King and wanted $1 per foot for his work. This was refused and the suit resulted. Duke testified that John Hull ordered him to dig the vault, and that King had ordered work stopped until a permit was taken out. John Sullivan, Dick Ritchie, David Wally and John Arb were called to give expert testimony and all testified that it was worth from $1.25 to $1.50 per foot. Walley causing a laugh by stating that his prices depended upon his employer's liberality. If he couldn't get $1.25 he would take $1 and if not that much he would do it for 75 cents. Sullivan thought it was worth a great deal more where Duke dug as it was rocky there. The trial was brief, J. J. Purinton defending Mr. King and Travis and Hasson prosecuting. The court decided that somebody owed Mr. Duke, quoting in his decision, "The laborer is worthy of his hire," but who the debtor was he could not decide. He could not render judgment against King as an agent, as the action was brought against him as an individual, so he gave judgment for $10 so that Duke would be safe in suing the agent. The claim will probably be pushed against Attorney E. D. Marshall.

The Wayne County Mutual Fire Insurance company has entered suit on Squire Rose's court against the D. E. McNicol pottery company for $27 claimed due for insurance. The case will be heard at 1 o'clock Friday.

E. D. Howard & Co. sued A. D. Mackintosh in the same court for $24.90. H. Irish, as treasurer of the Cooper Memorial college, sued J. C. Mackintosh, D. A. Mackintosh and M. Mackintosh for $10 on a promissory note, with interest at 8 per cent since Nov. 5, 1888, the interest amounting to more than half the principal. Both cases will be heard at 8 o'clock on Saturday morning next.

THE FERRY BOAT.

Solicitor Clark is Looking After That Bill.

Solicitor Clark is being urged by certain members of council to press the claim of the city against the owners of the ferry boat, but as yet he has not seen his way clear to attach the craft. The bill is a big one for wharfage, and council ordered it paid some time ago, giving it in the hands of the solicitor for collection. He is moving slowly in the case, and awaiting an opportune moment, having full charge of it. While it may come up in council this evening the belief is expressed that the solicitor will be given time to collect.

A Sweet Game.

The Taffies and Triblys played at the West End this afternoon. 'Twas a sweet game, no doubt.

THEY WANT A DIRECTOR

Christian Association Trustees Are In Favor of Him.

A PROPOSITION WAS RECEIVED

At the Meeting of the Board Last Night, But As This Was the Final Session Before Election It Was Laid Over Until the New Board Can Act—Never Had a Physical Director.

If all goes well the members of the Young Men's Christian association will soon be under the guiding hand of a first-class physical director, an institution the society has long wanted, but never controlled.

The meeting of the board of directors last evening was in charge of Vice President George, Mr. Bulger being absent on a trip through the South. A communication was received from Mr. Rogers, of Martin's Ferry, proposing to take the position of physical director at a given salary. The board decided that this being their last regular meeting and the new board would have to bear the expense, it would be an excellent idea to let the newly elected ones employ the director. It was their opinion, however, that the association should have an official of this kind. The members have never been given this advantage, and Secretary Morris has his hands full looking after the other work of the society. With an official of this kind the directors believe that the society can be strengthened, and people interested who have never manifested a desire to see it grow. At present the indications are that a director will be chosen early in the fall. The other business of the meeting was to appoint E. M. Crosser and Mr. Gray for the directors and E. D. Moore, Page Myler and Earnest Orr, a committee to nominate officers for next year. A meeting of the directors and auxiliary will be held June 6, to ratify the report, when a lunch will be served by the directors.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

William Allaback and Amanda Logan Arrested.

William Allaback and Amanda Logan were captured by the police late last night, and occupied lower rooms at city hall. They are charged with living together without the formality of a marriage license, and the law will take its course.

Police court had a couple of new victims last night, and they found to their sorrow that it does not prove funny to amuse themselves at the expense of others. In fact the adage of "He laughs best who laughs last," was forcibly impressed upon their minds.

The two men yesterday afternoon wandered about in the region of the river shore and finding that time hung heavily upon their idle hands, they proceeded to make life weary for Patrick Skelton, who lives in a shantyboat, and would not take a joke of any kind they offered. They annoyed him until he left his river palace and climbed the rugged heights to the summit whereon is located the local temple of Justice. There he sought balm for his wounded pride, and said numerous things about the men which was not complimentary to those parties. A conference resulted in Skelton deciding that he would give his disturbers a taste of law. Warrants were sworn out charging them with disorderly conduct and they were arrested last night. Both pleaded guilty and were fined $6.75. One managed to raise the cash and was released, but was still in jail today.

William Petty redeemed his word to answer the charge of resisting an officer last night and was fined $10 and costs for the fun he had when Farrish was arrested in connection with the disturbance at Professor Rowe's place. John McGuire, who said he was not guilty when faced by the same charge, was allowed to plead guilty to disorderly conduct, and was fined $6.95. He gave some cash to the mayor, and an order on his employer for the remainder. Farrish has not been released, nor will he be until his fine is paid. Friends are endeavoring to save him a workhouse term.

Tim Burns, the blind saloonist, continues to occupy a cell, no effort having been made to have him released since Saturday. There is a whisper that he will remain in jail for a time, and if his case is won in common pleas will sue the city, as did Caroline Smith.

THE TRIP ASSURED.

Company E Will Go To Chattanooga If They Hustle—A Meeting.

Captain Supplee has examined Sergeant Terrence for commission as first lieutenant of Company E and will conduct a meeting for the election of a second lieutenant on June 6. A letter from Colonel Gyger gives the assurance that the Eighth regiment, with two or three other regiments will go to Chattanooga during the first week in September for their annual encampment, and that Company E must be in good shape before that time. Captain Heisten, of the regular army, the latter says, does not compliment the boys here very heartily, but says there are many worse companies in the state. The company will be started to drill as soon as possible, and it is not likely that there will be much trouble in filling up the ranks. Captain Supplee's work is a serious obstacle to his holding regular drill, but he will arrange to have meetings as often as possible. The meeting for drill and election should be attended by every militiaman.

The meeting of the soldiers on June 6 is of more than ordinary interest outside the election. It is the anniversary of the first call the boys received for active service. Captain Supplee will be at the army tonight to enlist recruits, and all who have names to present should be present.

MAY BE TROUBLE.

Base Ball Goods Stolen at the Bethany Game.

Somebody is liable to find themselves in very hot water some of these days, and that day is not a month away.

At all the games played on the West End grounds the small boys have confiscated balls, bats, or in fact anything in the line of base ball goods which they could get their hands on. Many a ball has gone over the fence to return no more, and nothing has been said about it. But when sneak thieves deliberately stole a catcher's glove valued at $8, and a shortstop's glove and sweater at the game between the Young Men's Christian Association and Bethany clubs last week, the boys objected. The goods were the property of the Bethany team and the college boys went down the river without the articles. The local players did a little detective work and finally tracked down the youths who had secured the stuff during the dispute between the two clubs. The shortstop's glove and the sweater were returned very gladly when the self styled owners were threatened with arrest, but the catcher's glove, the most valuable of all, is still missing. The boys have located it and will probably put in a charge at the mayor's office. This should be done if it will break up the obnoxious practice of stealing on the ballground.

GAVE THEM A PIANO.

The Rebekahs Surprised the Odd Fellows Last Night.

When the Odd Fellows ended their meeting last night they were surprised to see Firm Albright seat himself before a handsome new upright piano, the presence of which had caused some comment during the evening, and the notes of an inspiring march filled the room. Immediately the door was opened, and almost half a hundred Rebekahs marched in with measured tread. After showing how well they could walk they stopped in front of the principal chair, and opening ranks allowed Mrs. Caldwell, Mrs. King and Mrs. Clemens to walk through. Then in a beautiful address Mrs. Clemens presented the lodge with the piano. Colonel Rhodes accepted the gift for the Odd Fellows, and the guests scattered through the room to spend a pleasant evening. Lunch was served, and the remainder of the time spent in enjoyment. The piano is a beautiful piece of workmanship, and the Odd Fellows love it as a token of the high esteem in which they are held by the ladies.

TO INITIATE CONGRESSMAN TAYLOR.

The Elks Will Claim Him As a Member on Thursday.

On Thursday evening the Elks will rejoice because Hon. R. W. Taylor will be initiated into the local lodge together with 19 other strangers.

The event will be the greatest in the history of the lodge, and preparations are being made to observe it in fine style. After the ceremonies at the hall are at an end the party will banquet at the Thompson House, where Proprietor Poke will have a feast fit for the gods awaiting them. Pittsburgh, Rochester, Steubenville and Wheeling have been invited to take part, and representatives from these lodges are expected. The Elks have claimed some of Columbiana's best men, and the Lisbon membership in the local lodge is large.

Examination Today.

The teachers' examination is being held in the Sixth street school building today, and quite a number are in attendance.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS BED

The Awful Discovery of an Old Man's Son.

OLD AGE WAS THE CAUSE

They Heard Him Move Around at 10 O'clock, But When a Member of the Family Went to Wake Him He Had Passed Away.

When Joseph Johannning walked into his father's room at their home, 145 Starkey lane, this morning, he found that death had been there before him, and the old man was gone to his last account.

William Johannning has not been well for several months but his son did not believe he was in danger. The old gentleman ate a hearty supper and retired as usual last night. When his grandson went to wake him this morning he found him asleep. Later the family heard him moving about and thought he was getting up. At 11 o'clock he was found dead in bed. He was aged 76 years.

The family have resided in this city since last fall and the deceased came from the old country about three years ago. Funeral arrangements are not complete.

KILLED.

A Fatal Accident Late This Afternoon On the Railroad.

John Temple, an East End man who lives with his sister, was struck by the afternoon passenger train on the track near Ralston's and was killed. He was walking along the track, and being an old man evidently did not see the train approaching. The body was brought to the passenger station by the train that killed him.

AN EXECUTION.

John Rinehart Must Pay or be Closed Up Tomorrow.

Last September H. B. Wherry, East Palestine carriage maker, secured judgment before Squire Travis for $64.88 against John Rinehart & Son. Today the plaintiff caused an execution to be issued by Squire Morley and it was served. Rinehart promised to pay the amount, and was given until tomorrow to settle.

OHIO REPUBLICANS.

Their Convention Convened at Zanesville This Afternoon—The Situation.

ZANESVILLE, O., May 28.—At this hour (2 p. m.) the delegates are gathering in the convention hall for the Republican state convention. The various district meetings are being held and must report to the convention at 4 p. m.

While Nash, Hoyt, Poe, Harris, Grosvenor, Major, Keifer, Barger and other candidates for governor have been here contesting for the nomination with their hands and parades, the older leaders have been counselling harmony. Senator Sherman and ex-Secretary Foster have called at the headquarters of each gubernatorial candidate and were closeted with them and their leading workers. No agreement could be reached because of the absence at the time of ex-Governor Foraker and General Asa S. Bushnell. Governor McKinley left Columbus today for New York and will not be here, owing to his Memorial day engagement in the east. Sherman, Foster and other leaders state that they are not seeking to have any slate formed, or to do anything for or against any candidate, but they do not consider it good politics to have the preferences of delegates expressed on factional lines. While all the candidates pledge themselves for McKinley for president and Foraker for senator, yet there is much feeling between the friends of these two leaders. When Foraker was defeated by Sherman for senator before the legislature in January, 1895, Governor McKinley's administration was credited with being a decisive factor in favor of Sherman. And now the Foraker faction is said to be wanting to name the next governor so as to have the state administration for their man next January instead of against him as heretofore. It is this issue that involves the presidential and senatorial preferences in the nomination for governor.

The senatorship has frequently been involved in the action of Ohio state conventions, and the selection of the Ohio delegation is usually an indirect issue at the state conventions the year preceding national conventions, but both of these national issues have never before been precipitated into the same year or into any one convention. The senatorship will be disposed of next January, some months before the selection of presidential delegates comes up, and for that reason some of the McKinley men, apprehensive that they might be caught napping unless they get iron-clad McKinley resolutions adopted at this convention.

It is generally thought that the strong endorsement of McKinley for president and Foraker for senator will be embodied in the same resolution. It is the fact that the nomination for governor and all state officers are contingent on the contest of factions for power in the senatorial and presidential races of next year that makes the convention one of such intense interest. All candidates and their friends claim to be for McKinley for president and Foraker for senator, but the factions do not believe in the sincerity of but one-half of each others' declarations, and both are more anxious to secure power than promises.

QUAY AT THE TELEPHONE.

He Declares His Support For a Bill in the Pennsylvania Legislature.

HARRISBURG, May 28.—The long distance telephone has been working again. Senator Quay was at the other end of the line at Beaver, and he announced he was heartily in favor of the passage of the appellate court bill. This is a call down for Senators Penrose and Andrews, who have been working hard to defeat the measure.

The resolution to adjourn June 6 was called up in the house by Mr. Stewart (Philadelphia). He amended it to make the closing day of this session Saturday, June 8. The proposition was seconded by Mr. Mackrell (Pittsburg). It was thought there would be a fight over the adjournment, but the resolution went through with ease. The senate held the matter over.

SARATOGA CHOSEN.

Presbyterians Decide to Meet There Next Year.

THE ASSEMBLY HAS ADJOURNED.

The Last Session Enlivened by Debate on Polygamy in India—Several Committees Appointed—Dr. Blair's Appeal Lost in the United Presbyterian Assembly.

PITTSBURG, May 28.—The Presbyterian general assembly has adjourned to meet in Saratoga next year.

Preceding the dissolving of the assembly by Moderator Booth, a good deal of business was transacted.

After the usual routine business the moderator read out the list of those who have been appointed on the special committee of twenty-five to raise the thanksgiving fund of $1,000,000 to celebrate the completion of the twenty-fifth year of reunion. Dr. W. L. McEwan of the Third Presbyterian church, Pittsburg, is chairman. The members are as follows:

John Hall, D. D., S. J. Nicolls, D. D., W. N. Page, D. D., W. H. Hubbard, M. O. Babcock, D. D., George D. Baker, D. D., S. J. McPherson, D. D., John N. Freeman, D. D., Thomas L. Sexton, D. D., Wallace Radcliffe, D. D., W. H. Roberts, D. D., W. S. Hubbell, D. D., Elders, Hon. James A. Beaver, Charles E. Green, J. H. Converse, H. B. Silleman, John Sloane, William Ernst (Covington), E. R. Perkins, Robert Pitcairn, William McLeod and H. N. Hibbard.

Unfinished business that had been held over then came up. After some routine measures, which were galloped through, the Indian matter, of a Hindu church member with two wives, was spoken of by General Adams of the committee on church polity, and it was recommended that no action be taken, as there are constitutional barriers in the way. One commissioner wished to know if polygamists persons could be baptized.

In the answer of the committee it was pointed out that the question of marriage is settled by the Confession of Faith, and that the matter rests with the church session.

Dr. Morrison of West India, as an authority and representing the synod of India, spoke. He said: "The first wife is usually the child wife, and also the childless wife, and the second wife the mother of the man's children. Under the patriarchal rule in India, the Scriptural practice ought to be in vogue, that faith alone is necessary for admission to the church. I stand here to plead the case of a poor, silly, impulsive woman, who, if she is turned away by the husband, must eventually take to a life of shame. We know the awful evils of polygamy, and in this matter you go against the judgment of the missionaries."

After a great deal of squabbling, and after half a dozen motions and counter-motions and amendments had been offered Dr. Johnson of Chicago made a motion, which was carried, that the matter be referred to the committee on church polity.

A recommendation was carried that a committee of three be appointed to go into the question.

The report of the committee on statistics was read by the stated clerk, who is chairman, and it was adopted. The moderator appointed the following three commissioners on the question of polygamy: Dr. E. R. Craven, Dr. J. D. Wells, president of the board of foreign missions, and Elder George Junkin of Philadelphia.

The reports of the various routine committees were rattled through at a swift pace.

The committee on bills and overtures reported that no action be taken on the reduction of the assessment, as the overtures on the subject had been inspired by a mistaken idea of the size of the surplus, which really is insignificant. Dr. Hutchinson, in a very telling and very amusing speech, in his own characteristic fashion, upheld the present assessment. The answer of the committee was adopted, that no action be taken.

THE U. P. ASSEMBLY.

Dr. Blair's Appeal Is Lost—Committee Make Report.

PITTSBURG, May 28.—The United Presbyterian assembly is discussing today the question of assembly control of seminaries.

The appeal of Dr. W. H. Blair, of Adamsville elder, accused of selling liquor without prescriptions to habitual drunkards and minors, was voted down, thus sustaining the action of the synod.

The report of the standing committee on narrative and state of religion was read by Dr. A. G. Wallace. The state of religion was shown to be good.

The yearly report of the board of freedmen's missions showed eight stations occupied, with six congregations, nine Sabbath schools and 509 communicants. The enrollment of the Sabbath schools is 2,905. The membership of the churches is increased by 66. The financial statement shows total receipts of $75,938.57, and expenditures of $53,638.61, leaving a balance in the treasury of $32,299.96. The board asks for an appropriation of $50,000 for the work of the year and the report recommended that this be given. The report was adopted.

The report of the judiciary committee in the case of Rev. J. G. Stewart of the Monongahela Presbytery, refused to sustain the appeal of Mr. Stewart. The appellant was accused of faith cure practice, and the promulgation of other peculiar doctrines. The report of the committee was adopted. The committee also refused to sustain the appeal of Rev. J. R. Wallace from the decision of the First synod of the west. The report was adopted.

The committee on Sabbath schools reported a healthy and prosperous condition of the work. The enrollment of the schools is 103,346, lacking only 4,000 of the total membership of the church. The contributions of the year amounted to $80,017, or about 80 cents per member. During the year 4,507 have been added to the church, a gain of 45 per cent over last year. The report was adopted.

The Weather. Fair; warmer; southerly winds.

Atlantic City, Cape May, Long Branch, and all the famous watering places along the New Jersey coast are located on the Pennsylvania lines, hence this will be a desirable opportunity to visit the seashore. The Denver excursion will be just the thing for a sight-seeing jaunt through the far west, as tickets will be honored going one way and returning a different route through the most romantic scenery beyond the Mississippi and Missouri rivers. Various route privileges will also be accorded Boston excursionists, enabling them to visit Niagara Falls, Montreal, Thousand Islands and St. Lawrence Rapids, the White Mountains, the Hudson River territory, and to return by steamer on Long Island sound, after sight-seeing in Newport, Narragansett Pier, Nantucket and the Cape Cod resorts to New York, and thence through the agricultural paradise of the Keystone state, along the Susquehanna and Juniata rivers, over the Alleghenies, around famous Horse Shoe curve, through historic Johnstown and the coke and iron regions of Western Pennsylvania. It is also expected that Boston excursionists over the Pennsylvania lines will be privileged to return via Baltimore and Washington if they so desire.

In addition to the above, there will be plenty of other cheap excursions over the Pennsylvania lines to various points. As the season is some weeks away, arrangements in detail have not been consummated, but it is certain that no railway will offer better inducements than the liberal concessions in rates and privileges that may be enjoyed by travelers over the Pennsylvania Lines. Apply to any passenger or ticket agent of these lines, or address F. VanDusen, Chief Assistant Passenger Agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gass, California Hollow, a son.

Adolph Joseph left yesterday afternoon for Cleveland, where he will attend the Pythian Sisters convention.

Architect Scott has completed plans for a new six room house for John Kinney. The structure will be erected near the Dresden pottery.

The case of Walter Quinn versus John Rinehart & Son for $40 claimed due for wages, was set for trial in Squire Rose's court this afternoon.

Mrs. Raff, confined to her bed with malarial fever, at the residence of Mrs. R. L. Bixby, 160 Fairview street, is convalescing. The statement that Mrs. Bixby was ill with fever is incorrect.

In the case of Ella W. Allison versus Frank Tullis, which came up for a hearing before Squire Rose yesterday, judgment was given the plaintiff for the full amount asked, $8.75, and the costs in the case.

Robert Collingwood's household goods were shipped to Cleveland this morning, where Mr. Collingwood will take treatment for rheumatism, with which he has been dangerously ill. He will make his home there, having relatives in the Forest city.

Cyclist George Hale has received word that Williams, who rode in the Martin road race to Cortland, N. Y., a 25 mile ride, won first time prize although the race went to another man. Williams and Eddy will ride in a big road race on Decoration Day.

James Dunbar, formerly with Quay & George, and known throughout the city, is lying at the point of death at 1064 Forbes street, Pittsburg, where he has been working. He is afflicted with a catarrhal trouble which it is feared will prove a fatal illness.

Local youths with wild west ambitions should make note of the fact that a Wellburg boy got too much Pawnee Bill. His companions hanged him in Pawnee William's most approved style, but the cord got around his neck and the boy came near being killed.

Dr. L. O. Williams was called to Toronto this morning by the serious illness of J. W. Clendening, who is suffering with an attack of heart trouble. He has been afflicted about three years at intervals. His son, who is employed in one of the barber shops here, went home yesterday.

The appropriation of land for the extension of Fourth street, came up in the court of Judge Young at Lisbon yesterday, and by order of the common pleas court a jury was drawn. The only member from this part of the county is M. O. Fisher. It will be heard on June 11.

Witnesses are being subpoenaed in the damage case of Timothy Connors versus the M. E. Golding company, and when the case comes up in common pleas court there will probably be some new and important testimony to revive interest in the case. The case is set for Tuesday next.

No appeal will be made in the fish killing case which was decided against William Grim Saturday. The statement is made that Grim could make it interesting for some of the boys in his neighborhood if he had a mind to do so, and the reluctance with which some of the witnesses testified confirms the rumor.

Henry Hays, the West End man who met with an accident during the icy season, was able to be out of the house for the first time yesterday. He had his leg broken by a fall on Jan. 25, and Dr. G. W. Detchon reduced the fracture, which was a bad one. Mr. Hays rejoices because he believes the leg will regain its former strength.

Ed and Will Oschman and Daniel Booth, who ran away to join Pawnee Bill, were brought from Wellsville by Chief Gill yesterday after they had been in jail about an hour. Will Oschman had become homesick and persuaded the others to return home. They paid their fares on a passenger train to the shops, where Detective Meehan grabbed them according to instructions. The boys have decided that there is no place like home.

The mother of Mrs. James Petticoat is seriously ill at the home of the latter in West End with congestion of the liver. She is an aged lady and her illness is telling upon her strength. Mrs. Petticoat's six year old daughter took suddenly ill with a pain in her head after returning from Sunday school on Sunday morning last and it was feared she could not live through the day. She was improved but slightly yesterday and today and is not yet out of danger.

The school board had a force of men at work today tearing out the desks from the rooms used for school purposes, and hauling them to the new central building, where they will be stored in the basement. The best of the mass will be repaired, and if of sufficient good will be scattered in the new building. When the old structure was demolished it was found that there were not enough seats to go around, and about 200 were purchased. These are now in good condition, and many of them can be used.

Dotted Swisses.

Last year, after the first of June it was out of the question for us to get Dotted Swisses as fast as we could sell them, but we have the goods this year. Not one piece of one kind, but five pieces of twenty different kinds. They are selling too. Think of buying a Dotted Swiss at 10c per yard, 12 1/2c 15c, 19c, 25c, 29c, 35c, 45c and 50c per yard. A new thing in fast black Dotted Swisses. A new idea this season. But they are sellers. Ask to see them.

Black Goods

You are going to wear shirt waists this season. Then you will want a black skirt. Not an expensive one, but one of these knock-about skirts that will stand a lot of wear. Brilliantine is just what you want. We have 45-inch all wool serges at 40c per yard; a better one at 50c. Our entire Black Dress Goods Stock is marked at figures that you cannot resist.

Umbrellas and Parasols.

White parasols are having a great run, and when you can buy a nice silk top, with white ribs and crook, for $1.25 no wonder they are so popular. Then we have the finer ones trimmed with lace and cheff'n, with the Dresden handles or natural crooks. All prices and qualities.

Butter Colored Laces.

Selling like hot cakes. We have the dainty little Valenciennes edge, with insertion to match, and the wide silk flouncings that are so popular. All the medium widths at the proper prices. We are not making an idle boast when we say that we show the best line of laces in the city.

Shirt Waists.

New ones just in. Our same "JUSTINE" that you have been buying and going wild over; only if possible more stylish than ever. Don't put off buying until we have another hot spell, and the rush of trade breaks us all up on sizes again, but buy now when you can have a good selection of patterns and styles.

WELLSVILLE.

A RUSHING BUSINESS

Mayor Sinclair and the Police Are Busy.

A JAIL FULL OF PRISONERS

Some Were Drunk, Some Were Jumping Trains—A Whole Family Captured.
Two Neglected a Marriage License.
Wellsville Police Court is Humming.

The jail held a full quota of prisoners this morning, and Mayor Sinclair was wondering what would become of the city's finances if this sort of thing was to go on and the number of hungry mouths increase.

Mr. and Mrs. William Downard and their son made up the principal catch last night. They were enjoying the evening in their own home when Officers Morgan and Thorn surprised them with the remark that the jail and not Hill street was their proper abode. Then something happened. None of the principals know the particulars, but the crowd was landed in jail with a string of charges against them. Drunk, disorderly and resisting an officer and interfering with an officer make up the list, and the mayor thinks there will be some workhouse sentences before the affair is over. The family have often caused the police trouble, but their time has come now.

Two train jumpers who gave the names of Vicker and Hines are behind the bars waiting for their conviction.
Both are young, and both have traveled a far way. Hines lives in New Jersey when he is at home, but he has been in California spending the winter, and having no money is beating his way back. He seems to think the quarters he now occupies, rightly belong to the road, and is not disturbed by the announcement that he may be compelled to work out a sentence on the streets. Vickers came from St. Louis, where he has been enjoying life during the winter, with the exception of a short time spent among the suffering of Nebraska. He heard that the people there were not enjoying prosperity, and with a heart full of pity went up to see if he could not help them. He, too, will likely work out his sentence on the road.

Another candidate for the works is the man Collins, who was arrested for insulting a woman.
An opportunity has been given him to pay, but if he does not have the money in the hands of Mayor Sinclair by tomorrow morning he will be sent to Canton. Newton, who was arrested for using abusive language, paid the $5 assessed by the mayor, and was released. Geisz can save a sentence in the workhouse if he happens to control the price of liberty or will work the streets at the stipulated rate. He has been given a choice.

THEY WERE FIRED.

The Landlord Knew They Were Not Married and Said So.

Two Liverpool men were ignominiously ejected from one of the hotels in Wellsville on Sunday night, and although every effort was made to keep it quiet, the story leaked out last night. They were accompanied by a pair of soiled doves, who, by their behavior, roused the suspicion of the landlord. He happened to know that they were not married, and finding the character of the women, promptly ordered them from the place. Where they went after being ejected is a mystery, but they got out of Wells-ville as fast as it was possible to go.

A charge of adultery was entered against the pair, and they will begin a hearing at 6 o'clock this evening.
They resided at Eighteenth street, and the police charge have been living together for a month.

THE NIGHT OF NIGHTS.

Commencement Exercises Will Be Held Tonight.

The commencement exercises of the public schools will be held this evening in Cooper Opera House, and one of the most elaborate entertainments ever held in this place will be given.
The graduates have been busy today on the final preparations, and when the curtain rises tonight there will be 12 members on the stage.

The News.

Miss Edna Riley elegantly entertained a party of friends in honor of her friend Miss Bruner last evening.
Dancing and music were the amusements. Dainty refreshments were served.

A young man well under the influence of liquor was standing near the turntable last night when he fell against the fence and hurt his face.
The man arose with difficulty, and staggering down an alley disappeared.
He was well dressed and a stranger.

The Wire Was Down.

The trolley wire fell at Sixteenth street this afternoon, and caused no end of annoyance. The people of Wellsville are anxious to have the company purchase a new wire, and put an end to these dangerous accidents. The defect was remedied in a short time.

Attorney Anderson in Town.

W. S. Anderson, the noted criminal attorney of Youngstown, was in town yesterday on business. It will be remembered that Mr. Anderson was one of the attorneys who so ably defended Jesse McGregor, and has been more or less interested in the case since that time. If he was here on business connected with the celebrated case he kept it to himself or only gave it out among people who know how to keep a secret.

Personal.

P. M. Smith has gone to Zanesville to attend the Republican convention.
Judge Young, of Lisbon, was in town yesterday calling on friends.

Miss Winters, who has been the guest of friends here for several weeks, has returned to her home in Cleveland.

She Is Lost.

An announcement was given in the NEWS REVIEW of last night respecting the mysterious disappearance of a domestic, a girl of prepossessing appearance and, until lately, good character. It was feared that the girl had met with foul play. But this fear has been dissipated in the knowledge that she was seen on the streets of East Liverpool on Saturday night last, in company with a notorious female, the latter a woman who has led astray more than one young girl of this city and who should be treated to a coat of tar and feathers or ordered to leave East Liverpool. The father of the domestic mentioned has been communicated with, and he will no doubt look after his daughter and make it interesting for the woman who has enticed the young girl into evil ways.

Some Transfers.

The following transfers of Liverpool real estate have been recorded in Lisbon within the past few days:

William Robinson to W. H. and J.
N. Vodrey, a part of lot 543; consideration, $1,700. John Brindley and George Burton to Colonel Hill, lot 2518 in Liverpool, for $461. Smith Fowler to Margaret Burnhart, part of lot 565, for $2,800.

Gone to Cincinnati.

Col. H. R. Hill and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Brunt, and Mrs. B. M.
Loutban left last night on the Keystone State for a pleasure trip. They will consume a week in making the voyage, and expect to return on the Keystone. If the river continues navigable for packets a number of these parties will be made up in the city.

To the Decorating Committee.

Commander Allison desires to call attention to the committee on pine and the Woman's Relief corps that the evergreens should be at the Fifth street rink tomorrow not later than noon. The committee are expected to have the pine at the rink, and the ladies are expected to be there to make the wreaths and decorations.

Fell From His Wheel.

A tourist on a bicycle sustained a hard fall above the East End en last night, cutting a gash in his head and injuring a wrist. He was aided by local wheelmen who were in the vicinity, and rode on as though nothing had happened.

NEVER TOO LATE TO MEND

—the bad habits and early vices of young men and their disastrous, consequences. Young men and old men, those who suffer from nervous debility and exhaustion, the wasting away of the vital strength and power from hidden drains or intemperate habits can readily find relief for body and mind by writing the World's Dispensary Medical Association of Buffalo, N. Y. They employ a full staff of physicians and Specialists, who treat at a distance by correspondence or at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, in this class of diseases. Those who suffer from low spirits, irritable temper, a "broken-down" nervous system, and such distressing symptoms as backache, dizziness, shooting pains in head or chest and indigestion, sexual excesses or abuses, all the result of exhausting diseases or drains upon the system, will find a permanent cure after taking the special prescriptions sent them from the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute. This association of medical men have prepared a book written in plain but chaste language, treating of the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. The World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., will, on receipt of this notice, with 10 cents (in stamps for postage) mail, sealed in plain envelope, a copy of this useful book. It should be read by every young man, parent and guardian in the land.

The Key to the Situation

—If you suffer from Sick or Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, or any derangement of the stomach, liver and bowels—is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mildly and gently, but thoroughly they cleanse, renovate and regulate the entire system.
One little "Pellet" for a gentle laxative—three for a cathartic. They're purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. These tiny, sugar-coated granules of Dr. Pierce.

Dogs and Ponies That Almost Talk.

The above company of all star animal actors will appear in this city under a tent on West End ball park three nights, beginning Monday, June 3. One reason of Professor Blake's great success is the fact that, coupled with his remarkable artistic powers is a distinct purity and nobility of nature, an intelligent, honest manhood, rarely met with in other walks of life, and still more rarely met with in the line of animal trainers. This moral integrity is so apparent in his professional work that not to speak of it would be to slight an influence that has distinctively emphasized his art as a trainer.
He is certainly the greatest in his line before the public, and has the most refined exhibition of educated animal life of this day and time. Dogs and ponies that can almost talk, and at prices so low that everybody can attend. Children, 10 cents; adults, 20 cents. Matinee Wednesday at 2:30 p. m.

Knights of the Macabees.

The state commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience prove that it cures where all other remedies fail."—Signed F. W.
Stevens, state com.—Why not give this give this great medicine a trial, as it is guaranteed and trial bottles are free at T. L. Potts' drug store.
Regular size 50c and $1.00.

It May Do Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50 cts. for large bottle. At Potts drug store.

A MORMON LESSON.

AN INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM THAT WAS FOUNDED BY A GENIUS.

Brigham Young Chose For the Cornerstone of State the Sound Principle of Industrialism—What He Did With the Problem of Irrigation.

On July 14, 1847, President Young and his fellow pioneers passed through the picturesque outlet of Emigration canyon into the valley of the Great Salt lake. Utah was then Mexico, and the leader believed he could find what ever character of institution should suit him and his people. In the bitter anti-Mormon crusades of the past it has been alleged that "Brigham Young had chains on men's souls." There is no doubt that religious superstition, rendered effective by the marvelous machinery of the church, was partly the source of the leader's irresistible power with his own people, but back of the religious superstition and the church organization stood the brain of a great and masterful man. He knew that his power, to be enduring, must rest upon something material and tangible, and this something he discerned to be the prosperity of the people themselves.

Brigham Young was an organizer of prosperity. This was the real source of his strength. He did not aim at mere temporary prosperity. On the contrary, he fought everything that tended to that end, going to the length of actually forbidding the opening of the rich mines in the mountains near at hand, because he abhorred the spirit of speculation. He chose for the cornerstone of his state the principle of industrialism, and that principle lies there yet, at the base of a noble edifice of economic fact, reared by human toil and held firmly in place by the average prosperity of all who had part in its building. If the great architect and the superintendents and foreman who surrounded him enjoyed a larger share of the profits than the workmen, it is also true that the humblest hewer of stone and carrier of mortar was paid in proportion to the importance of his labors. And what fair mind can object to an industrial system that yields these results?

So far as can be learned, Brigham Young had no previous knowledge of irrigation when he entered Salt Lake valley. He quickly realized that he had come to an arid country, which would be hopeless for agriculture unless artificially watered. With marvelous perception, he saw that irrigation was not a drawback, but an advantage of the most important sort. He realized that it meant freedom alike from the dangers of the drought and of the flood. He discovered that, having a rich soil and ample sunshine, and adding moisture by the construction of ditches, it was actually an improvement upon nature to be able to turn the "rain" either on or off with equal facility. And therefore he rightly concluded that he had found in these conditions the basis of the most certain worldly prosperity and the most scientific agriculture.

It remained for a later genius to remark: "Irrigation is not a substitute for rain. Rain is a substitute for irrigation, and a mighty poor one." But if the Mormon leader did not say so he evidently felt it. He perceived, furthermore, that irrigation was much more than an insurance policy upon the crops.
It brought all the processes of agriculture within the realm of known facts, and that is science.

It even rendered possible the control of the size of vegetables, and this became important many years afterward, when the Mormon people added a great sugar factory to their industrial system, for it is important to grow sugar beets of about a standard size to get the best results. Moisture is required to give the beet a vigorous growth at the beginning, but when it is well started weeks of uninterrupted sunshine are desirable in order to develop the saccharine qualities.
Much sunshine at the wrong time dries up the crop, while much moisture at the wrong time produces a beet pleasing to look upon, but unprofitable at the factory.

Brigham Young also realized, almost at the first, that the necessity of careful irrigation largely increased the labor upon an acre of land, but he found that this labor was generously rewarded by the increased yield both in quantity and quality. And from this fact he drew the most important principle of his commonwealth, which was the division of land into small holdings. Closely related to this is the other twin factor in Mormon prosperity—the diversification of farm products to the last degree.

Natural conditions, even where there is the most abundant and well distributed rainfall, are often favorable to the production of only a few crops. But the Mormons realized that the skillful application of water just where and when needed, and in just the right quantity, and by the very best method, rendered possible the widest variety of fruits, vegetables and cereals suited to the temperate zone. Thus Brigham Young taught the people that no man should own more land than he could cultivate to its highest point by his own and his family's labor, and that no man should go to a store for any article of food or clothing that could be profitably produced on his own small farm.—"The Conquest of Arid America," by William E. Smythe, in Century.

THROWN FROM A CAR.

A Washington Street Girl Painfully Hurt.

Miss Mazie Barret, who resides with her mother on Washington street, was the victim of a painful accident on Sunday night. She attempted to leave a street car when it was in motion, and fell. The car was stopped, and every assistance lent by the motorman, who could not be blamed in any way for the accident. The girl was bruised about the head and shoulders, and her side was hurt. The company gave every assistance possible.
